Council Tax Discount or Exemption - Persons in Detention

Guidance Notes

When are Discounts or Exemptions allowed?

A 25% discount is allowed if only one adult remains in the property. An exemption is allowed if the property is unoccupied as the tax payer is in detention.

Can discounts be allowed in other circumstances?

Yes, certain groups of people are not counted for the purpose of discounts, i.e. they are treated as if they were not resident in the property.

Therefore the bill for the property with the two adults where one adult is not counted will be the same as for one-person household i.e. a 25% discount is allowed. Where an adult who is not counted lives alone the bill is discounted by 50%.

If however, there are three or more adults living in the property as their main home and only one is not counted, no discount is allowed.

What groups of people are not counted?

People will not be counted if they are classed as:-

Enduring Mental Illness	Care Workers	Persons Providing Care
Persons in Detention	Students	Apprentices
Youth Training Trainees	Members of Religious Communities
School/College Leavers	over 18 years old for whom Child Benefit is Payable

For the purpose of discount or exemption, what are the conditions for not being counted?

A person is in Detention and not counted for Council Tax purposes if:-

- a. he/she is detained in Prison, Hospital or any other place by the order of the Court, or
- b. he/she is detained and awaiting deportation, or
- c. he/she is detained under the Mental Health Act 1983 (England), (Scotland 1984) or
- d. he/she is detained by the Army, Navy or Air Force for a period exceeding 48 hours provided he/she is not held in custody under open arrest.

It should be noted that people who have been temporarily discharged are still treated as detained.

If however, a person is detained for non payment of the Council Tax or a fine they are not treated as detained.
