Long-Term Empty Premium Exception application

Since 2013, Councils in England have been able to charge a premium for long-term empty properties. For the purpose of council tax, long-term empty homes are dwellings which have been unoccupied and substantially unfurnished for a period.

The Government recognises that there may be instances where it may be inappropriate for the council tax premium to apply. On 1st November 2024 the Government legislated exceptions to the long-term empty premium, commencing from 1st April 2025.

If you want to apply for one of the mandatory premium exception categories, please complete and return this form to the address above.
